The acclaimed Los Angeles Art Show returns for its 12th year, January 24 through 28, 2007. The Los Angeles Art Show is the only event on the West Coast where one can view and purchase a diverse collection of art spanning five centuries. The show is a city wide event, with several local museum exhibitions including: The Los Angeles County Museum of Art (LACMA), The Museum of Contemporary Art (MOCA), The Museum of Latin American Art (MoLAA), The San Diego Museum of Art (SDMA), The Autry National Center, and others.
