LA Art Show's 30th Anniversary Opening Night Premieres Tonight with Host Jenna Dewan

The LA Art Show celebrates its milestone 30th year tonight with an Opening Night Premiere at the Los Angeles Convention Center. We're honored to welcome actress and producer Jenna Dewan as our celebrity host.

Opening Night features renowned artist Robert Vargas creating a monumental 24-foot mural titled "Heroes," honoring first responders. The evening supports both the American Heart Association's Life is Why™ Campaign and the California Community Foundation's Wildfire Recovery Fund.

"Los Angeles is home to our show, it has always been. Our city has suffered and endured so much, and I just want to say that we stand with all Angelenos as we continue to recover and rebuild. We are deeply grateful this show could go on, with the city's support," says Producer & Director Kassandra Voyagis.

Under Cassandra Voyagis leadership, this year's LA Art Show presents over 90 galleries and institutions alongside our signature DIVERSEartLA platform. This special retrospective, curated by Marisa Caichiolo, features eight large-scale installations and an impressive 60-foot historical timeline showcasing collaborations with prestigious institutions including The Broad, LACMA, MOLAA, and others.

We're grateful to our partners the American Heart Association, US Hybrid, and Athletes for Life for their support. Enjoy music throughout the night from DJs David Bollock, Ezra Luxe, and Lush Bunny.
