LA Art Show 30th Anniversary: Honoring Our Longtime Exhibiting Galleries

The LA Art Show stands as Los Angeles's largest and longest-running art fair, marking an extraordinary milestone with its 30th anniversary edition from February 19-23, 2025, at the Los Angeles Convention Center. As we reflect on three decades of artistic innovation and cultural exchange, we recognize the foundations that have made this evolution possible—our longtime exhibiting galleries who have been instrumental in shaping the show's legacy and will once again be part of this historic anniversary celebration.

Under the leadership of Producer and Director Cassandra Voyagis, the LA Art Show has grown into a significant international presence, featuring over 100 galleries, museums, and nonprofit organizations from across the world. While we continue to expand our horizons, welcoming new participants from Turkey, Spain, Belgium, Japan, Canada, France, Taiwan, London, Italy, Switzerland, and the Netherlands, we take this moment to honor those galleries that have contributed to our success for more than 15 years.

Among these established galleries, each has contributed uniquely to the diverse landscape of contemporary art. We are proud to present these returning galleries, whose dedication to advancing the arts spans both coasts and crosses international borders. Read on for more on each gallery...

Arcadia Contemporary, New York

A champion of representational art since 2000, Arcadia Contemporary has masterfully bridged classical techniques with contemporary narratives. From its SoHo roots to its current West Broadway location, the gallery has maintained its reputation for discovering artists who combine technical excellence with innovative vision.
